Arhine Solutions Limited in partnership with OCB Media have created a suite of easy to use, interactive e-learning modules. The modules cover a variety of leadership skills and can be tailored to meet your organisations needs. We can also provide branded modules for internal use which can be incorporated into your in house L&D programme for employees.

We are currently offering access to our time management module FREE OF CHARGE to a limited number of organisations. If you would like to try our module for FREE then please contact us.
